"Ukrainian nationalists fired on civilians leaving the town of Volnovakha". This information was reported in the Telegram by the DNR Territorial Defense Headquarters.

REAL

The city of Volnovakha in the Donetsk region is almost completely destroyed. This was announced by the head of the Donetsk Regional State Administration Pavlo Kirilenko on Tuesday, March 1. "A restless night from February 28 to March 1. The most important thing is that Mariupol and Volnovakha are ours! Both cities are under pressure by the enemy, but they hold on," he wrote on Facebook. He noted that in Mariupol, due to enemy shelling, power lines were interrupted, and the city was left without electricity. "Volnovakha was almost destroyed, about 30 people were evacuated, another hundred left on their own," Kirilenko added.
